

Neighborhood Safety Summit

- Mayor Jean Quan
- District Attorney Nancy O'Malley
- Superintendent Tony Smith
- Chief of Police Anthony Batts
- Chief Probation Officer David Muhammad

Invite you to attend Oakland's
Neighborhood Safety Summit

Together we can stop the violence

Sharing strategies for stronger neighborhoods

FREE

Breakfast & Lunch Provided

Attend Strategy Sessions, Dialogues and/or Workshops in the areas of:

- Gang Awareness
- Loitering
- Racial Profiling
- Restorative Justice
- Barriers to Youth Employment
- Sexual Exploitation of Minors
- Youth Perspectives on Crime
- Truancy
- Police-Community relationships
- Parolees and Re-Entry
- Volunteering and Youth Mentoring
- Community Policing
- Chinatown Town Hall Follow-Up Session (in Cantonese)
- Special sessions in Spanish
- Gun Violence & the Community
- And more!

How to Register: Please register by October 8, 2011 on line at <http://www2.oaklandnet.com/safetysummit> or by phone at 510 238-3091.

Interpretation: To request interpretation services in Spanish call (510) 238-6813 or in Chinese call (510) 238-7957 before October 7, 2011.

Si necesita servicios de interpretación en español llame al (510) 238-6813 antes del 7 de octubre del 2011.

如需翻譯服務必須在2011年10月7日前登記確認方會在此活動提供。登記需要中文翻譯服務，請致電 (510) 238-7957

Sponsors: Office of the Mayor, City Administrator's Office, Neighborhood Services Division, Oakland Police Department, Community Policing Advisory Board, Neighborhood Watch Steering Committee, Measure Y Oversight Committee, Block by Block Organizing Network, Laney College, and more.

Saturday, October 15, 2011

8:00 am to 1:30 pm

Laney College Gymnasium

900 Fallon Street, Oakland

Parking off of 7th Street

Which strategies and policies are most effective in reducing violence and promoting safety?

How can neighbors, community organizations and the City work together?

How do we improve safety and opportunity for youth?